Closing Our Largest Month's Selling

of Furniture In the August Sale with

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

The sale itself closes with the last day of August Thursday.

Then all prices go back to normal.

Until then our entire remaining stock of household furniture-regular and special-at discounts of 10 to 50 per cent.

Hundreds of Pieces at Half

According to custom, these are newly reduced from the August prices-down to half the price of each grade

- to sell out the odd pieces;
- -to sell out the single suits;
- -to sell out discontinued patt rns:
- to sell out the August furniture.

New plans are ahead for the Autumn. New furniture is ready to come in. Yet because of the removal of certain stocks housewares and others to upper floors, the furniture must be condensed to two galleries.

This means a drastic clearance. This means the entry into the half-price groups of many pieces we would like to keep for regular stocks.

All in the Interest of the Public

It is all in the interest of the public-the newly arranged Galleries; the larger collection of furniture at half; the new furniture to come in.

Not in the history of the Wanamaker business has there been so large a month's selling of furniture.

Not before have we offered more attractive opportunities at the end of a sale. Four days only - today, Tuesday, Wednesday,

Thursday. Fifth, Sixth, Seventh. Eighth Galleries, New Building. ADVANCE DISPLAY

The Climax

Mid-SummerFurnitureSale 1/3 LESS

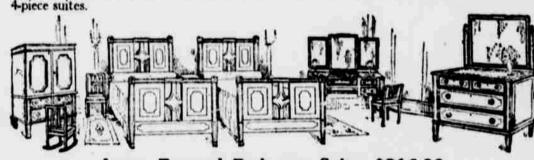

THE Mid-Summer Furniture Sale this year has been one of the most successful events of its kind ever held by R. H. Macy & Co. It has been unequalled anywhere in Greater New York for combined high quality and low price.

Careful comparison will prove Macy's 1/3 LESS Prices to be below those featured at Half Price Sales Elsewhere

As a fitting climax to this remarkable event we will follow our usual custom of instituting a general and thorough disposal of odds and ends in suites and separate pieces in order that we may have room for the new fall merchandise now on its way. The price concessions are large. In this instance we have deducted 3313 per cent. from the price-tag of every piece of furniture— 1/3 off prices that are known to be at all times "Lowest-in-the-City."
